OPENING READING

PSALM 23

Read by Francis Moreno

The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not be in want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
he restores my soul.

He guides me in paths of righteousness
for his name’s sake.

Even though I walk
through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD
forever.

PICTORIAL REFLECTION

“Remind Me” by Conrad Sewell

A stylized tiger mascot logo is positioned on the right side of the page. The tiger is depicted in a roaring or intense expression, with its mouth open showing sharp teeth and a red tongue. The logo is rendered in shades of orange, black, and white, with a bold, graphic style. The background of the entire page is a textured orange color with a faint, repeating pattern of the tiger's head.

BIBLE READING
Ecclesiastes 3:1-14
Read by Celeste Torino

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones
together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.
What gain has the worker from his toil?
I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with.
He has made everything beautiful in its time.
Also, he has put eternity into man's heart,
yet so that he cannot find out what God has done
from the beginning to the end.
I perceived that there is nothing better for them
than to be joyful
and to do good as long as they live;
also that everyone should eat and drink
and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man.
I perceived that whatever God does endures forever;
nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it.
God has done it, so that people fear before him.

The background features a large, stylized tiger mascot logo in shades of orange, grey, and black. The tiger's head is on the left, with its mouth open, showing a red tongue and white teeth. The word "TIGERS" is written in a bold, stylized font across the middle and bottom of the image. The entire scene is set against a warm, orange-toned background with a subtle geometric pattern.

BIBLE READING

John 4:7 - 11

Read by Kristine Couch

Beloved, let us love one another,
for love is from God,
and whoever loves has been born of God
and knows God.

Anyone who does not love does not know God,
because God is love.

In this the love of God was made manifest among us,
that God sent his only Son into the world,
so that we might live through him.

In this is love, not that we have loved God
but that he loved us and sent his Son
to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also ought to love one another.

PRAYERS

Rev'd Mark Evers

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

THE GRACE

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all forevermore. Amen
