POEM

One Last Flutter

Read by Danielle Bryce

I've always gone with the roll of the dice
But now my numbers up
And since I'm the one down below
There must be six up top
I always knew the odds were against me
So it's time for one last flutter and sin
I'm going to bet on heaven not hell
God knows if I'll end with a win.

“Everything Is Beautiful” by Ray Stephens

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

CONCLUSION

POEM

Afterglow by Helen Marshall

Read by Ashley Bryce

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
