POEM

"Your Mother" by Author
Unknown

Your mother is always with you
She is the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street
She is the cool hand on your brow when you're not well.

Your mother lives inside your laughter
She is crystallised in every tear drop.
She is the place you came from,
your first home.

She is the map you follow with every step that you take.

She is your first love,
and your first heartbreak

And nothing on earth can separate you.

Not time, not space,

Not even death will ever separate you from your mother.

You carry her inside you.

REFLECTION MUSIC

"How Do I say Goodbye" by Dean Lewis

POEM

"Afterglow" by Helen Lowrie Marshall

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one
I'd like to leave an after glow
Of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like my name to still be spoken
With deep love and gentle grace
I'd like the mention of my name
To bring a smile upon your face
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun of happy memories
That I leave when my life is done.

THE LORDS PRAYER -ALL

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

the power and glory

Forever and ever.

Amen.

THE COMMITAL

THE IRISH BLESSING

Janice

May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields and,
Until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand
